

Additions to the Christ the King Library - May 2026

The following books are the latest additions to the CTK Library. They will be on the "New and Featured" shelf unless they have already been checked out. (This is the top shelf on the left as you enter the library.) Take the card from the back pocket of the book and put your name and date on it. Put the card in the wooden box on the red cart.

158.2 HAW Dealing with the Crazy Makers in Your Life: Setting Boundaries on Unhealthy Relationships

by Dr. David Hawkins

"This authoritative but user-friendly guide will show you how to recognize and avoid the hooks crazy makers use to reel you in and dominate your conversations. You will also find out how you can set healthy boundaries...Your thoughts and feelings are important."

261.243 KNI Without Buddha I Could Not Be a Christian

by Paul Knitter

"Knitter demonstrates how Buddhist perspectives can inspire a more person-centered and socially engaged understanding of Christianity. Honest and unflinching, this book is a moving story of one man's quest for truth and spiritual authenticity."

270.83 TIC Emergence Christianity

by Phyllis Tickle

"We are called to read and study and discuss Emergence Christianity in order that we may discern how best to serve the kingdom of God in whatever form God is presenting it. A central characteristic or principle of Emergence Christianity is its aggressive belief in inclusivity and the importance of diversity in worship and in community."
